

11:15 11:20 Welcome

- Brief introduction and purpose of the meeting (Peggy)
- Introductions and your experience with CSC 110 and 115
- Review of agenda and explanation of process (Anke)

11:20 11:25 Question 1

What are the challenges that students face when learning how to program?

- What programming concepts do students find difficult to grasp?
- What are the hurdles that students encounter when using a programming development for the first time?
- What are the hurdles that students encounter when using a new programming development environment?

11:25 11:30 Question 2

What are the essential features that should appear in a programming environment?

11:30 11:35 Question 3

Which tasks/assignments/class aspects require collaboration in CSC 110 and 115?

In which tasks/assignments/class aspects do you think students would benefit from collaboration?

11:35 11:40 Question 4

What challenges do you have in using the computer as part of the teaching environment?

11:40 11:50 Any further comments?

11:50 12:00 Introduction and Demo of Gild (Peggy)

12:00 12:10 Question 5

How could Gild alleviate the challenges you identified earlier with respect to using technology for teaching?

12:10 12:20 Question 6

What are the essential features that should appear in Gild?

12:20 12:30 Question 7

In which of the above do you think students would use Gild in their collaboration, either in face-to-face group meetings or when working from home?

12:30 12:35 Closure